

From My Heart to Yours

Dear Church Family,

This week in our community funerals will be planned and held for James White and Zack Moak, the two Brookhaven Police Department officers who were killed in the line of duty last weekend. Cpl. Zack Moak was the great nephew and namesake of our long-time member and deacon, Rev. Zack Moak who passed away in 2017. Their deaths demand responses from our community and state.

The first response is the critical response. And our community responded rightly. We came together last Sunday night to support the families of the fallen with a visible statement of support and prayer. There will be other needed responses to the evil that was done that early Saturday morning, but they must be done in truth and grace. The civil government has its God-given role. But we have a role too. The Bible makes it clear in Romans 12:21 – “Do not be overcome by evil but overcome evil with good.”

In the name of Christ Jesus our Lord, reach out to your neighbor in love. Support our law officers and first responders. Let us not curse the darkness but rather put that energy into shining the light of the Gospel in word and deed to all we meet.

Next week, our morning worship service will include a powerful testimony of transforming power of the Word of God and how we can help spread the Good News around the world. Please invite your friends and neighbors to join you next week. You can make a difference.

Tuesday, October 16th – Rescue 100 – a Christian ministry that helps train people to be foster care parents - will have Orientation Meeting at 6:00 - 7:00 p.m. I will show you a brief video of this ministry today. There are other Orientation meetings in our region as well. Please see the bulletin for those.

Come, now is the time to worship!

I love you in the Lord,
Bro. Greg

Good morning brothers and sisters.

This is the day our Lord has made. We will rejoice and be glad!

Next Sunday is one of my favorite Sundays of the year. In the morning worship gathering on October 14, our children will be leading us in worship. Here are some ways you can prepare for next week:

- Pray for our kids choirs and their leaders. We have the best leaders in the business. They do a tremendous job teaching our kids about worship.
- Be present next week. Make a conscious and sacrificial effort to be in corporate worship on October 14th. You won't regret it!
- Listen to Build My Life by Michael W. Smith and Yes and Amen by Pat Barrett. We've sung these over the past 6 weeks in preparation for this day, Our kids will present some songs to encourage us and we'll experience the joy of watching their praise. However, these two songs are specifically placed for us to join them. They will lead, we will follow. I want our kids to hear us singing their songs.

I love you all more than you know!
Pastor Nick
