

From My Heart to Yours

Dear Church Family,

What a Sunday we had last week! Some reflections: We welcomed Kevin and Annah Dunaway into our church membership. We witnessed their daughter, Isabellah's profession of faith. We also witnessed Natalie Freeny's profession of faith. We look forward to their baptismal service. Coach O'Hara's moving testimony had a great start when Jeff Henning shared his testimony and challenge as an introduction for Coach. Wow! I rarely look at previous services, but I will look at that one and remember how God put that day all together. Glory to God!

Our Casa de Fe Lunch fundraiser was remarkable. Three years ago, this began to help offset the extra salary payment Ecuador requires all employers to pay workers in August. (Tis The Season was started many years ago to help with the extra payment they require in December.) Bro. Joe Davis and Connie Hodges led this effort. Since their retirement and move to other cities, someone had to step up. Thank the Lord, Doc and Claris Westbrook did! And they led a great group of workers well. Thank you for your generous donations. $7,734.22 was raised. This is the second highest amount for this fundraiser.

In our Put To The Test Rally last Sunday night, all seven area football teams and cheerleading squads came, led by their coaches and Fellowship of Christian Athletes sponsors. It was an incredible night. I was proud of our area football coaches! Attendance exceeded our expectation and 7 students made first time commitments to Jesus Christ as Lord. We had 69 students recommit their lives to Jesus Christ as Lord. Afterward, we fed them a great meal. There were plenty of teams in the church house that night, but I could not have been prouder of Team FBC Brookhaven: Coach Bud O'Hara, Jeff Henning, Kathy Walker, Chris Layton and the Band, Nick Wolfe, Nathan Wells and the Media Ministry, Jeff Doremus, Danny Chatman, Desmond Henderson, our Church Staff, Farm Bureau Insurance Agents led by Chuck Owens and the host of volunteers serving meals and setting up chairs. When you see them, thank them; they are making a real difference for Christ!

Now we turn to a new sermon series – Fullness. I am asking every member, every boy and girl, to join me in memorizing a favorite psalm. Which one? Now open your Bibles to...

People of the Word...People of Prayer

I love you in the Lord,
Bro. Greg

Dear Church Family,

In my 20+ year calling of being a worship leader, I can't recall a more worshipful summer than we have had at FBC Brookhaven in 2018. I have been so encouraged and I am so thankful to be a part of a church who is committed to worship. Throughout the past 6-8 weeks we have had so many opportunities to come together as a church family to bring praise to God. Thank you for your faithfulness to the Kingdom. Keep it going!

Some thoughts on worship:

Worship is about God. When we convene to sing together about God it is in our best interest to be fully informed and as precise as possible about what we sing about Him. He demands and deserves truth.

Worship is for God. God uses the worship of His people to draw others to Himself. The easiest way to evangelize is to set your affections on Christ during worship and give Him all. Unbelievers are watching you.

Worship is to God. There is nothing more worthwhile in worship than for the individual and the church to address their praise and offering to God. There are times to sit and listen. But our time is better spent participating in the active praise of God almighty.

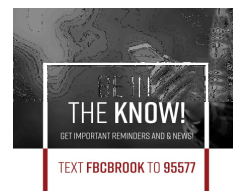

These are the priorities that guide me as a worshipper and as your worship pastor.

I love you all more than you know!
Pastor Nick

Dear Church Family,

We have received the resignation letter from Missy Kilpatrick as our Children's Ministry director. We deeply appreciate Missy's service to our church. Her resignation will be effective on September 1, 2018. We are grateful that Missy and her family are remaining in our church and she will be working in our children's ministry as a volunteer. The Personnel committee will be exploring the direction for this position.

Dr. Bill Sones, Jr.
Chairman – Personnel Committee
