

From My Heart to Yours

Dear Church Family,

What a wonderful time we had at our Trunk or Treat Fall Festival last Sunday afternoon. I want to thank Missy Kilpatrick, Carrie Sones and Theresa Sones and all of the Sunday School Classes and families that provided a 'trunk' with treats. From the giant blow-up slides to the 'Bobbing for Donuts' to the Gospel Story Tunnel – it was a night of joy and Jesus! I appreciate everyone who gave to make this event happen.

This week I had the joy of attending our MS Baptist State Convention. It was a time of encouragement and spiritual challenge in my life. The 500 voice combined church choir with Orchestra; the praise teams and their bands; the Singing Churchmen; the Singing Churchwomen led us in two days of worship and exaltation of our Lord Jesus Christ. The preaching and Bible treasures were stirring and convicting. If you have a chance to attend even one of next year's sessions, Oct. 30-31, 2018, do so!

Today, I start a new sermon series – The Generosity Factor. I hope you plan to attend each of the Sundays in this month and spend time evaluating your life by the questions, "Lord, am I generous? Lord, is my family generous?" If not, what do I have to do differently to be generous unto the Lord?

I believe if we each take this challenge seriously, we could see unexplainable, spiritual blessings take place in our lives, God's church and our community and world. It starts with you and me.

I love you in the Lord,
Bro. Greg

PS: Tonight, we return to Legacy Worship as we study a powerful passage in the 15th chapter of Matthew!

New Sermon Series beginning this Sunday Morning.

Brothers and sisters,

"We have come into His house and gathered in His name to worship Him." Can it get any simpler than this for us today? Acts 20:35 says of Jesus that He said, "...it is more blessed to give than to receive." Throughout November we will be hearing about different aspects of being generous. My plea this morning is that we would be generous in our worship. We do not gather to spectate; we gather to participate. There is a song for most every sort today. When a song you know is offered - be generous with your voice and sing it! When a song you kinda know is offered - be generous with your mind and try it! When a song you don't know is offered - be generous with your smile and fake it!!!! (Last example is meant to be funny.) God is worthy of every generous effort you will put forth today. Be generous.

Tomorrow the Joy Choir (our senior adult choir) meets for rehearsal at 10:00 a.m. in Assembly Room 1. We have so much fun together. We are working particularly hard on some Christmas music for December and of course our normal monthly singing at Legacy Worship. If you would be interested in singing with the Joy Choir, feel free to come tomorrow at 10:00 a.m. or call Nick at 601.757.5516 for more information.

I love you all more than you know.
Pastor Nick
