

From My Heart to Yours

Dear Church Family,

Well this morning is the first day where it should feel like fall, if weather predictions hold true. Now it's been officially fall season for three weeks, but it's felt more like the dogdays of August. Sometimes that's how our Christian walk seems – yes, we are Christian and yes, it doesn't always feel that way. So dear friends, focus on your faith not your feelings. If you do, your feelings will come in line with your faith and you will feel joy again.

We are blessed with a wonderful Children's Worship ministry each fall semester on Wednesday nights. Today, our children will help lead us in worship. This program not only teaches music and singing but does so as it teaches foundational Christian truths. I appreciate the leadership of Mrs. Lisa Furlow, Pastor Nick Wolfe, the choir directors and workers that make this growing program happen each fall.

Let's continue to look at the checklist for ministry in our sermon series – More Than Enough - as we study the book of Colossians.

Bro. Greg
