

From My Heart to Yours

Dear Church Family,

Last Sunday we welcomed Kyleigh Burt into our church membership and rejoiced as Gatson Walker publicly reaffirmed his faith in Jesus Christ. I hope, if you are able to safely attend indoor gatherings, that you are participating in our Wednesday Night family activities and our Sundays@5 discipleship courses. There is something offered for every age group. This bulletin has more details on these activities.

Again, I want to share that on Wednesdays, we have three prayer service options. First, we are continuing our 11:00 a.m. Sr. Adult Prayer luncheon in the Fellowship Hall. Second, we are offering a Live online prayer service at 12:30 p.m. This service will be archived on our church's Facebook page and Youtube channel for later viewing. Then we have a new prayer service format at 5:40 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. We are enhancing our video and sound capabilities in this multi-use room. The 5:40 p.m. includes a time of worship, Bible message and features praying in small groups with a prayer facilitator. It concludes at 6:25 p.m. I hope you will be involved in one of these times of prayer.

Also we are receiving our annual Margaret Lackey State Mission Offering. This provides vital funding for Camp Garawa, Central Hills Retreat, Disaster Relief, Outreach to international college students, MS prison ministry, Deaf ministry and more. The largest part of this offering helps support MS Baptists like our church members go on mission trips. You can give to the State Mission Offering for the next few weeks through the Shelby Giving app too. Our goal is $8,000.

Dane Ortlund in his book, Gentle and Lowly said, "And what did he (Jesus) do when he saw the unclean? The prostitutes and the lepers? ...He touched them...But there is something deeper in Christ's touch of compassion. He was reversing the Jewish system. When Jesus, the Clean One, touched an unclean sinner, Christ did not become unclean. The sinner became clean." That's good news everyone needs to hear. Reach out and engage people with the Gospel this week.
